

Edible Book Exhibition and High Tea
March 30, 2003 • 4--6:30 p.m. • Minnesota Center for Book Arts

Where production and consumption meet!
It 's your chance to "have your art and eat it too."

Join artists worldwide in exhibitions and high teas across the globe.

To submit a work and join the feast,fill out and return the entry form by March 21, 2003.All works of art must be edible and have something to do with books.You choose the materials.The works do not have to be eaten at the time of the exhibition,but if you would like,they can be served to the audience at the reception.If this is a part of your work,PLEASE PLEASE be absolutely conscientious of safe food handling procedures and potentially toxic materials.You must supply all serving and display materials.Tables and tablecloths will be provided.

The exhibition is the brainchild of Umbrella Editions and Colophon Journal,which are sponsoring a web page to accompany the exhibition.Pictures from all Edible Book High Teas worldwide will be posted on the internet at <http://www.geocities.com/books2eat/>.

A "menu " of works will also be prepared and will be archived at Colophon Books in California.. While the "virtual " exhibition will occur in cyberspace,,the "actual " exhibition will be displayed on March 30, 2003 from 4-6:30 p.m.at Minnesota Center for Book Arts (1011 Washington Ave. S., Minneapolis. www.mnbookarts.org).Tea and coffee will,naturally,be served.

All works must be in the Gallery and ready to display at 3:30 p.m.on March 30.
