

Meeting Three Agenda

March 2, 2009

1. Introductions from new attendees
 - a. Name
 - b. Where you're from
 - c. Why you're a Libertarian
 - d. A Review for new attendees
 - i. Website
 1. Reading list
 2. Meeting agendas
 3. Schedule
 - ii. Black-belt Goals
 1. Required Readings
 - a. Short readings, all free, all online
 - b. Readings are required for discussions
 2. Why are they required?
 - a. For debates
 - b. For knowledge
 - c. Mock debates?
 - iii. Proselytizing Goals
 1. Tabling
 2. Speakers
 3. Tom Mullen, speaking about his book A Return to Common Sense: Reawakening Liberty in the Inhabitants of America
 - a. Mullen speaking on the 11th of April on campus
 - b. CL will host the event with three other student groups
 4. Posters
 5. Podcast?
 6. Facebook
 - a. A great way to attract attention to the group!
 - b. Getting people who describe themselves as "libertarian" in the U of M network on Facebook!
 - iv. Social Goals
 1. Brunches/Dinners
 2. When?
 3. Where? Stub and Herb's...
 - v. Officer Appointments
 1. President
 2. Vice President — Finance
 3. Vice President — Publicity
 - vi. Young Americans for Liberty
 1. Close affiliation
 2. Meeting time and place
2. The libertarian forum for this week
 - a. Israel/Gaza
 - i. The one-state solution, the two-state solution, and the zero-state solution
 1. One-state solution: the "solution" that has been in place for more than half a century

2. Two-state solution: the supposed "only way forward"
3. Zero-state solution: Israeli land does not equate to, nor require, an Israeli state
- ii. Libertarians say: neither statist "solution" is really a solution at all
- b. Some notes on Obama's speech
 - i. Quote one
 - ii. Quote two
 - iii. Quote three
 - iv. Quote four
 - v. Quote five
 - vi. Quote six
 - vii. Quote seven
- c. Nationalization of banks: what's at stake
 - i. What is nationalization?
 - ii. Investors and nationalization
 - iii. Taxpayers and nationalization
 - iv. The effects on banks
 1. Fannie and Freddie, anyone?
 2. Here we go again...!

3. Conclusion